

Carol Nichols

September 6, 1943 - October 2, 2011

PDF Printable Version

Events

OCT 22 Memorial Service 11:00AM

Lower Highland Bible Church
24535 S. Ridge Rd., Beavercreek, US

Comments

“ Mom i know i'm late to sign in but i had to be other places. You know where i've been . I will miss you ever day from now to eternity. You taught how to be the best i could at everything i ever did, you always told me if i gave it my all then i didn't fail. Because if your always trying you can't fail. I can't spell, we are alike that way. Bryan turned 18 this weekend and is having a real hard time with you being gone. We all know your in a better place and finally at peace so for Christmas ma this year you have peace and take care of my baby girl tell i see you again. Love Always your biggest pain in the but. you will be missed forever more and will live on through all of us forever.....

Toni Crawford - December 20, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ have a hard time explaining how much this woman meant to me but will try my best for her! This was another mom for me... for 12 years. don't know what i would have done without her through many trials and tribulations. I lost a dear and best friend. I still am in denial that she is gone. I want to walk down the way and say hi and watch DH with her every Sunday nite, as I have for 7 years. I watch it w/o her now and I make sure I tell her what Mike "The Plumber" is doing. He's hers and Carlos is mine. This woman (My other mother) was an amazing woman who would give anyone anything. Well... she gave me alot of everything and alot of her heart. most of all she gave me my best friend...T.C. Luv You mama and luv you B.F. You will always be in my thoughts and heart mammas! luv u! Candie

Candie Burleson - October 27, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Mom I miss you so much my heart is hurting but my head is telling me that you are at peace finally. I know you are watching over all of us and laughing while hurting at the same time for our pain, that is the price one pays for knowing you and loving you as we all do. I wouldn't change a thing. I have become the person lam today because of your love. You have touched and inspired so many people through out the years of your far to short of a time here on earth. You will be treasured for many generations to come. I love you forever you ornery old Irish woman. Thank you for giving me life. Your Daughter Traci Lynn

Traci Nichols - October 21, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ We love and miss you. It does not seem real that you are gone. We miss your smile and all the birthday reminders.

Michelle Nichols - October 20, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Carol was a joy! She was such a faithful and very important supporter of Jeannie Hoffman's visits to Portland, Oregon each December for the past 15 years or so. Jeannie would join me for our traditional Christmas concerts that had first started in December 1973. Jeannie moved from Portland to San Francisco and without Carol's faithful support, it would have been very difficult for Jeannie to make the journey from San Francisco to Portland each December to do the concerts. God Bless You Carol for being there for Jeannie and I...and for being such an uplifting, joyful and encouraging person for us.

David Friesen - October 17, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I worked with Carol at Libbie's for 20 yrs. I enjoyed working with her. And I will miss her very much.

Sue Alexander - October 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ thanks for being with us

-amen

sarah nichols - October 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Sending all my love to you.

Jeanette Smith - October 13, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“

steve shepherd - October 13, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“

Carol was my dear friend for 30 yrs. We shared so many things together and I will miss her with all my heart. Hope she and Ed get to re unite once again! Love you Carol! Later Linda

Linda Morgan - October 09, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“

I worked with Carol for many years on and off at Pals/Libbys. I moved a few times and she was always there when I came back. Loved her dearly and am so sorry she is gone.

Lyn Burnett - October 09, 2011 at 12:00 AM