“ Hello, My name is Marisa and although I am not sure who I am addressing this letter to (who checks the website), first I would like to say I am very sorry for your enormous loss with Aaron. I hope you have been able to find some peace and continue to live with joy, as he would wish for you.

Aaron and I dated from around 1993-1997. Although that was a very long time ago, He was my first serious boyfriend we loved each other very much. We finally separated because he picked up the habit of leaving town, sometimes for weeks, and often without contacting me while he was away. It was driving me insane because I was very much in love with him. We moved away in opposite directions and fell out of contact.

Aaron was as kind-hearted, intelligent, and loveable as ever a person could be. My world really did revolve around him for a very long time (he was very magnetic!). I only wish I could have had more time with him, as I know everyone does.

I will be in Portland this Friday (his birthday), I am coming up because I just had my birthday last week and some friends gifted me tickets to see Alex Grey paint live with music. If there is something like a stone marker for him, can you please let me know where it is so that I can visit him and bring flowers on his birthday. If it is farther than Portland then I would still like to visit it soon.

Thank you very much and I wish you and your family every blessing.

“ The sad news of Aarons passing has just reached my friends and I here in Bend.

There are not adequate words to describe Aaron's kindness and charisma. To be with him was to be at ease and also filled with an intense joy that I think every person in his life was touched by.

His heart was always full of love for Witt, Griffin, his friends, and his family. He spoke of his sister often and as a best friend. There was always a framed picture of her in his room.

Aaron and I spent several years here in Bend that I will always remember with a smile and a skip of heart beat.

Although it was sad to see the quality of media coverage surrounding Aaron's passing, it is well known he was a man of remarkable integrity, class, and ever high standards who lead a great life surrounded by people who admired, respected, and adored him.

Friends in town will be sharing memories of Aaron with joy one evening this week, anyone in the Bend area please contact me if you would like to join us. marisa_belle@yahoo.com

“ His smile was his trademark,

wherever he went.

A room would brighten

when Aaron came in

'cause the first thing you saw, would be his grin!

A son and brother so precious;

a friend so true!

Whatever he had,

he'd share it with you!

A thought, a deed, a kind word for a while

But always, oh always,

He'd share 'His Smile'.

Our hearts are breaking,

our thoughts are going wild!

We've lost our friend:

We've lost our child!

"But only for a while,"

Hand selected by Jesus from this 'garden of life'

Gone to Heaven!-He's through with this strife!

Why is he gone?

God only knows.

But Oh what a treasure,

A "smiling rose!"

Love you Aaron!

“ I just wanted to say how saddened I am to hear that a great guy was taken from us. I meet Aaron while my husband lived with him in his house for a couple of months. My husband is from Texas and was a Glazier in Portland not knowing alot of people Aaron opened up his home and friendship to my husband and very few people do that. I visited once and thats when I meet Aaron and Mags I loved that dog right away and saw how he cared for him. Thank you to his family for having such a wonderful son me and my husband appreciated that. Aaron you will be missed deeply . From Tony and Jamie Corpus Christi, Texas

“ Aaron you always brought a smile to my face when we were hanging out. I am remembering specific moments with you and all I see is your smile your kind eyes and hear your mellow voice. You were a comforting person and I thank you for that. My hearts saddens each time I realize I won't be seeing you anymore. You were loved by so many and they all miss you so much. The next time I go to the hill the day will be in honor of you. Take care and know we all will be together one day with you. xo

“ Sarah and Mary,

I just wanted to reach out and say how very saddened and sorry I am for your loss. I have thought about Aaron a lot over the years and I want you to know that he will always have a special place in my heart as he was my first love. I have so many great memories of Aaron. Please know that I am thinking about you both and praying for you. I also want you to know that my cat Wiley (named after Wyle-e-Coyote) is still alive. He is the cat that Aaron went to pick up with me 19 years ago and Aaron was the one who named him. Sarah, I know it has been a long time but I still live in the Twin Cities, if you ever want/need to get in touch please feel free to call or email me. Again, I am so very sorry Aaron was a wonderful person and I know he will be missed. All of my love, Mindy
