

Allen James Row II

April 18, 1956 - October 8, 2009

Allen James Row II (Jim), was born in Santa Monica, CA on April 18, 1956. He was a very good baby and child to live and grow with. There was one time Jim decided to take a walk very early one morning in his pajamas. Our friend found him out front just starting his walk. She interrupted and brought him back home.

From a very young age Jim loved animals, especially cats. When he was 1 year old he had a black and white kitten which was known as Kit A Little Lee. That was the way kitty was said by him.

Jim found a love for baseball at a very young age as well. He loved to play with balls, bats and gloves. Jim just really enjoyed sports. He played baseball from age 8 to 15 in Huntington Beach, CA.

Through school Jim was an excellent student. In grade school he found a new love, music! He played the saxophone. In junior high he was in the band and marching band. He had a real talent for playing. Some of the instruments Jim played were the sax, trumpet, obo and dabbling in many others. At Marina High School there was a new challenge with concert band added to his list. He joined Velvet Knights Drum and Bugle Corp. playing a horn. He traveled the USA and Canada with the Velvet Knights.

In early 1974 our family moved to Lindsay, CA. For the last 1/2 of Jim's senior year he attended Lindsay High and graduated from there. During this semester at Lindsay, Jim was able to go with the band to Japan. What a wonderful time this was!!

After graduation, Jim moved back to Southern CA and attended Jr. College. That is also when he started working for Benge making brass mouthpieces for instruments.

Jim was married in 1980 for a short time but good things didn't last.

Around 1993 Jim moved to Oregon City, OR with the company he was working for Marcinkiewicz Company still making brass mouthpieces.

Jim spent the rest of his days in beautiful Oregon. His love for music was with him until the day he passed.

Jim will be missed by all that knew him!

“ I remember Jim as a quiet man who even as a child enjoyed the peace and quiet of his room reading his favorite book. He was a joy to his grandparents, Lester and Frances, and even lived with them for awhile as an adult. His gentle manner will agmlbe missed.
