

Anthony Michael Foix

January 20, 1946 - March 23, 2020

Anthony Michael Foix, born January 20, 1946 in Lewiston Idaho, to Maurice and Dorothy Foix (preceeded in death) died peacefully Monday, March 23, 2020 at the age of 74.

As a boy his family moved to Oregon City, Oregon where he settled for 74 years. He graduated Oregon City High School in 1964, then proudly served in the US Army during the Vietnam War. After honorably discharging in 1968 he met and married Mary Elizabeth Spencer from Carthage NC. They were married for 52 wonderful years and raised 3 children Cynthia, Sherri and Dede.

At an early age he started his 35-year career at Precision Cast Parts, Portland plant where he later retired in 2009.

Tony was survived by his beloved wife, Mary; three girls; his many Grandchildren and great grandchildren; Three brothers Gary (preceeded in death) Jay, and Terry and many nieces and nephews who all held him in high regard and loved him dearly.

He will be buried at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland, Oregon and a memorial service will be held at a later date to honor this man who was loved by family and friends.
