“ Art was a very dedicated and long-time museum volunteer (at least 35+ years), whose huge smile, quick wit, outstanding knowledge, and very slow jeep driving made him a cherished member of the museum, and endeared him to all who knew him. He will be sorely missed.

“ We have lost a great friend and life enthusiast! I got to know Art May when I was assigned to the Oregon Military Museum in 2005. I quickly learned that Art was the man behind the scenes. Art influenced all actions accomplished by the "detachment" and volunteers. Art's appreciation of insisting on Historically relevant authenticity was a value very much appreciated by all. Art tested the young Warrant Officer, me, during those early days, following the time honored standards set by the NCO Corps. I think I gained Art's trust, we shared the passion of patch collecting and reminiscing about his service in Europe. I appreciated Art's mentorship and friendship.....He will be missed!
