“ My grandma was one of sweetest grandma's ever! She always had a smile on her face and a twinkle in her eyes. Both her and my grandfather were admired and loved by many. Grandma was an amazing cook. You could smell her pot roast down the street. My grandparents had a sign inside their motorhome that said "Let me tell you about my grandchildren" and they did. lol Grandma grew up in Arlington, Oregon and my grandpa was an Oregon State Policeman at that time. And they met during a roadside check. and the rest was history. Grandma was 98 when she past away last year. She had a beautiful life, and i miss her every single day.
