“ Hi Mom, I hope your heavenly birthday was amazing, & you were surrounded by family & friends. I thought about you a lot, & even posted on my Facebook page. It was a clear night so we went outside & looked for your star. We waved & blew kisses. I hope you saw us. The past couple of years have been challenging in many ways, but we continue to stay positive & keep pushing through. I'm so glad that if you aren't able to be here with us that you are our beautiful guardian angel. I feel your's & Daddy's love always. See you in the stars on every clear night. Love you always ❤️

“ Hi Mom, here we are three years after you headed out on your Heavenly adventure. We miss you & everyone that is there with you, each & every day, but we continue to celebrate the amazing & loving person you will always be to us. I continue to learn more about gardening which I know would surprise you. I hope Heaven is amazing & you all are enjoying each others' company. Until we all see each other again, we will continue to wave to you on that special star on every clear night. Sometimes I think I can see you wave back. We love you very much ❤️

“ Thinking of you on what would have been your 95th birthday here on Earth! We celebrate you each & every day. Your impact on my life, & on the lives of so many others, can't be described, but it sure is felt. I still look forward to clear nights when I can wave to you on that special star. I imagine that you bring others there often, & that you all wave back. I'm still continuing to grow Bev's Book Project to honor you. You gifted so many books to kids, & were always willing to help others with a gift, or with a few groceries, or whatever was needed, even if it meant that you gave up something for you. I may not write on here as often as I did after you first left us, but you are in my heart & in my thoughts every day. I am truly blessed to have the best parents ever. Please give Daddy & Susie, & everyone else too, a hug from me. I love you Mom ❤️

“ Year two without you here with us has started recently. Hope you are reunited with Daddy, Susie, & everyone else that headed to Heaven before you. Please hug them all for me. I'm holding the first Christmas fundraiser sale for Bev's Book Project on Nov 16th. I am confident that it will go well. I know you will be there helping behind the scenes lol. I will write again soon. I love you, Mom ❤️

“ Happy Birthday, Mom! We miss you so much, but know you are with us every day. I hope you are spending your Heavenly birthday with Daddy, Susie, & so many other amazing people on that adventure too. It was a beautiful day here today. So much has happened recently, but since you are forever my guardian Angel, I'm sure you already know. Thank you for watching over us. I still go outside on clear nights & look for your star. I wave to you & everyone there with you, & hope somehow you know that & wave back. It makes my heart happy to see your star twinkle back from the night sky. We love you so much, Mom! ❤️

“ Well it's now Day 1 of Year 2 since you left for Heaven. Most days it still seems like yesterday. We miss you so much, Mom. I feel like you are always with me, though, because of so many wonderful memories made over so many years. I'm glad you are reunited with Daddy, Susie, & so many other amazing people that have touched your life. I miss your presence here, but the fact that you shattered that hold that Alzheimer's had on you makes me feel happiness for you. I love you, Mom, & I will continue to wave to you on clear nights. When I wave to you on that star, it seems to twinkle back. I hope everyone hangs out there with you. That way I can wave to them too. I love you always, Mom ❤️

“ Wow, I can't believe it's been 10 months since you left us to head on to your Heavenly adventure. It seems like yesterday when I was sitting next to you holding your hand. I look for that certain star  on every clear night & I wave to you hoping you & others in our little circle are waving back. I hope you are having an amazing time reconnecting with those who left before you. We sure miss you! We planted a Sweet 100 tomato plant for you & it has produced soooo many tomatoes that we have shared them with others. The plant grew 7' tall! I know those were your favorite tomatoes & you definitely would have loved them this year. We love you so much & think of you each & every day! Please give everyone hugs from us!

“ Hi Mom, I know it's been six months since you left for your Heavenly adventure, but it seems like yesterday. We sure miss you. I hope you have been able to reunite with Daddy & Susie, Grandma, Gloria, Uncle Ray, & so many more. I look into the night sky on clear nights for the last star on the handle of The Big Dipper & wave, hoping you & our family is there waving back. I hope you are enjoying an amazing adventure! We will always miss you here, but know we will see you again some day. I love you, Mom! Please give everyone hugs & tell them we love them too!  Until next time...

“ Hi Mom, I made the party mix that you like so much today. I'm having a tough time getting into the Christmas spirit this year. It's just not the same without you here with us. If all goes as planned, I will put up the Christmas tree tomorrow. As you know, it's usually up by December 1st. I haven't written to you on here for a while, but I think about you every day. I am working on plans to make the book project more visible. I'm hoping to get a few more donations so I can get some flyers created, & hopefully partner with a couple of local businesses to become drop off points for books. I'm excited to see this project grow. Well, I should get a little sleep. I love you, Mom. Give Daddy & Susie hugs from me. ❤️

“ Hi Mom, life is sure different without you here with us in person. I'm still having trouble adjusting to this reality, but I'm trying. I bought some holiday decor & solar light stakes for yours, Daddy's, Susie's, & Grandma's resting places. I will add wreaths soon. I want to redo the bows first. We sure miss you a lot & share our thoughts daily. I wish we had clear skies at night right now so I could look toward The Big Dipper & wave to you guys. I love you, Mom, & will write you a note here again soon! ❤️

“ Hi Mom, not a day goes by that I don't think of you & miss you so much. I'm almost finished with all of the pieces to officially get Bev's Book Project in full swing. I think you would like this idea since you always liked to share with others, & offer help when needed. You have been such an amazing influence in my life & I am forever grateful that God chose us to be mother & daughter. I love you, Mom ❤️

“ Hi Mom, I just wanted to write & tell you how much you are missed every day. We have been by the cemetery to visit your resting place with Daddy & Susie. The deer seem to be enjoying your flowers. I figure that you & Daddy won't mind as you enjoyed all kinds of animals, but they could have eaten someone else's flowers lol. I'm kidding...well, sort of. Anyway, today is my first birthday without you here. I expect that this is one of many firsts that will be coming up. I will do my best to be strong like you. I love you, Mom ❤️

“ Aunt Bev, I never thought of you as anything but my loving "Aunt" even though I know you were actually my cousin once removed. I have so many great memories of you. I also know, between you and Aunt Gloria, you must have made some type of pact to make sure my sibs and I had a childhood that had at least some good memories mixed in with the chaos that we were constantly being exposed to at home. I remember many trips to the beach, Alpenrose Dairy and many other places with the two of you where we all could just be goofy little kids without a care in the World besides being, well, goofy little kids. You two were angels on Earth and I will forever be thankful for the love and care we received from the both of you. I am also thankful that I actually got the chance a few years back to tell you exactly what I said up there to you in a phone convo. You said, thanks, but acted like it was no big deal--all that time --and money (those were not free trips, I am sure) not to mention the mentoring that you gave freely of and lovingly. If I ever needed advice, I always knew at least two people in our family who would listen and advise with care -- You and Gloria. You were grace and beauty and really reflected the face of God in the way you treated others. I will forever be grateful that he put people like you on the Earth and I was allowed the opportunity to know you--I will love you forever--your niece, Cathy

“ Hi Mom, I wanted to let you know that we cleaned up around your resting place today, & added more flowers for you, Daddy, & Susie, & Grandma too. Tonight, we were able to see the Big Dipper. We waved, & the star at the end of the handle appeared to sparkle a little so I'm hoping it was you guys waving back. We all miss you so much. We love you, Mom! I will write again soon 💕💕

“ Well Mom, we got you laid to rest today next to Daddy & Susie. My heart breaks knowing I can't hug you right now, or tell you in person that I love you, but I know I will see you again someday. Remodeling my heart might take a long while, even a lifetime here on Earth, but there is a huge space for you to live in there next to Daddy & Susie. I will keep working on being strong like you showed me. That is apparently requiring a lot of tears right now, but I will get there. Just know that I love you forever & beyond.

“ Mom we will truly miss your giving spirit. You raised your children to be strong loving and responsible. I am so happy you had such a full life and was able to accomplish all that you had set out to do. You had overcome adversity early with the loss of our precious sister and your first daughter Susan. Like her we know your in God's memory and there isn't anything more perfect than that. It can be difficult not having you to talk to or touch but we no your no longer in pain and the future holds so many promises according to God and we wait patiently for the fulfillment of those promises. Love your son Erik and Lori and all your grandchildren Erik II, Joshua, Thomas and great grandchildren Rylan and Avery and Verrick, Sloan and wendy

“ There are so many amazing memories with you, Mom. I don't know where to begin so I will just share that you have been an amazing mom to me & I feel truly blessed to be your daughter. I can't wait for the night sky to reveal the stars so I can see you, Daddy, Susie, Gloria, & Grandma waving from the star at the end of the handle on the Big Dipper. I will wave back to you. I love you & miss you so much...
