“ Bryce was a wonderful boy. I remember him coming into the office with his bright smile and talking about what video game he wants to get next. I watched Bryce grow up for 9 years and he reminded me so much of Ron. Ron and Tammy, Bryce was blessed to have two great parents in his life. Bryce will always be remembered.

“ Bryce, you are such a good kid. Everyone who met you at my wedding was blown away by how amazing you and Dillon were. Never for one second did I think that you wouldn't make it through this. You are loved by so many people, none more so than your dad, mom and brother. And I truly believed that our love would keep you here, but I can at least take comfort in the fact that it keeps you near. You will always be in my heart.

“ Not enough years to enjoy such a wonderful young man. Thanks for being such a good friend to Brittney. We laugh when we think of that Wii evening with Guitar Hero and all the Wilson household craziness. Your fun loving personality will be missed. Watch over us all. Love ya!

“ Bryce was a fine gentleman and fun to be with. I wish I had made time for us to do some fishing together. It's hard to understand why GOD takes some of his young people so early. We need more kids like Bryce and if he was my kid I would be very proud of him. God Bless him and his Mom and Dad.

“ I really enjoyed Bryce, he was a delightful fellow. Circumstances kept us from spending much time with him but we loved dearly. I'll always remember Bryce with a grin on his face and good word to say.

“ Ron and Tammy are wonderful parents and it showed through Brice & Dillon. Brice was a real sweet heart and his outgoing infectious personality drew you in and captured your heart. He was always so helpfull & attentive that when you went to visit the Wilson's it was not uncommon to find yourself in the garage jumping on pogo sticks with Brice or trying to kick his butt on the lastest video game he had. He was truely one of God's greatest gifts.

“ Dear Bryce,
Your smiling face was always the first thing to greet me and the last thing I would see when I left.

Your hugs will last a lifetime in my heart. I want you to know how much you touched my heart. I never told you because unfortunately it is so easy as an adult to take everything for granted. Not to mention, I am sure you would have been embarrassed...teenage boys don't like the hear those kinds of things from their "sorta" aunts. ;)

Your picture is amazing, what a handsome Wilson you turned into.

I can't believe you are gone. I mean, I REALLY CAN'T believe it. Even as I write this letter to you, it is all very unreal. I feel so horribly sad for your dad and your mom...it makes me sick to my stomach.
But, we will do our best to take care of them for you.

Spread some of your light in Heaven, you have some good people to keep you company.

Love you,
Wen

“ Bryce was a good kid and he left us way to early. The Lord has a time for us all to meet him in heaven and I guess it was just his time. As a friend of the family, I've known Bryce for many years. He always played hard and was a typical teenager. He was always in good spirits and loved to laugh but also had a serious side about him when he needed it. Whether he was living in the city or on the Ranch he would always help me when I needed help and he never asked for anything in return. He just enjoyed helping his neighbors when he could. He was growing up to be a great young man. I wish his Family the best and I pray they quickly get through this time of sorrow and relish in the life we had with Bryce. We will all be together again.

Bryce you will surely be missed.
