

Carol Jean Dewey

January 1, 1944 - October 22, 2025

It is with deep love and sadness that we announce the passing of Carol Jean Dewey who was born in Oregon City, OR on January 1, 1944 and went home peacefully on October 22, 2025.

Carol was the devoted wife of John Dewey and the proud mother of Tami, Tony, and Tracy. She was also a deeply cherished grandmother to Alliyah, LJ, Josh, April, Tony Jr., Jacob, and Alex, and a beloved sister to her 11 siblings. Family meant everything to Carol – her love, laughter, and strength formed the heart of every gathering.

Carol had a heart of gold that touched everyone who knew her. She loved spending time in her garden surrounded by flowers and rhubarb, tending to her plants and coy fish with care and joy. She found peace on the Island of Maui where the beauty and warmth matched her own spirit. Her cooking brought people together, and her fiery personality, mixed with endless kindness, made her unforgettable.

Carol's life was a beautiful example of love, generosity, and resilience. She will forever be remembered for her giving heart, her vibrant energy, and her ability to make everyone feel at home.

Her memory will continue to live on in the hearts of her family, friends and all those lucky enough to have known her.

“ Aunt Carol loved her family and would do anything to bring them together. I will never forget her generosity when I needed to fly from Montana to Oregon to help my dad with the death of his wife and Aunt Carol payed for my ticket. She welcomed me with love and kindness and when I got home she had sent me photos that she had framed of myself with my little brothers , Shane and Justin. I've always known that her family meant so much to her. Aunt Carol, you will missed greatly, thank you for welcoming me❤️. See you in heaven!
