

Christopher Kirk Howcroft

July 1, 1980 - July 28, 2019

We lost Christopher Kirk Howcroft in July to complications with diabetes (the betus). Chris was 39 years old and had already been planning his ultimate karaoke 40th birthday next July.

He is survived by his mother, Mary Jo of Oregon City, his sister and brother-in-law, Jennifer and Matt Rosenberger of Battle Ground, Washington, and his three cats. He also surrounded himself with his large family of aunts, cousins and 39 years worth of friends. He was a 1999 graduate of Oregon City High School.

From music to movies, to crafting, Chris was always finding a way to let his creative juices flow. Homemade thoughtful gifts were a regular occurrence for “burfdays” and Christmas. But Chris’ favorite holiday was always Halloween. He would start planning his costume November 1 for the next year. In fact, his last Instagram post was about his 2019 Halloween costume.

His memorial will be August 4 from 1 - 4 p.m. at the Museum of the Oregon Territory in Oregon City. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Cat Adoption Team of Sherwood.

“ Chris was a true original as well as one of the sweetest and most genuinely funny people I've ever met. His incredible sense of humor put smiles on the faces of everyone who knew him. I've had the good fortune to play music with Chris in several projects. His creativity and camaraderie made him a pleasure to be around, and I'll always cherish the laughs we had together.

“ Chris was one of the most genuine and nice people I've had the pleasure of meeting since I moved to Portland. We've shared many nights dancing at Lovecraft and wandering the streets just talking about life. He was one of the kindest souls.
