

D. Maxine Heagle

June 2, 1917 - May 22, 2011

PDF Printable Version

Previous Events

Reception

MAY 27. 12:30 PM (PT)

Zion Lutheran Church
720 Jefferson Street
Oregon City, OR

Tribute Wall

“ D. Maxine Heagle

January 28, 2023 at 02:51 PM

“ *Dear loved ones,
I recently read Happiness is the spiritual experience of living every minute with love, grace, and gratitude.*

*That being said, I know our lovely Maxine was one of the happiest people on earth. She told me that if I wanted to pray for her to ask the Lord to help her let the light of his love shine through her. He answered that prayer. I was always blessed in her presence and so were all who had that priviledge. We will miss her and look forward to joining her and that happy angel band just over in the glory land.
May the God of all Comfort be with you all through this sorrowful time.*

Love in Christ Jesus, Bonnie and family

Bonnie Roeder - May 27, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Cousin Maxine was a wonderful person to everyone she met. She loved everyone and she really loved the Lord she showed it everyday in the way she lived. I will miss her but one day i will see her in heaven . Love carol carol boule - May 26, 2011 at 12:00 AM

CR

“ *Maxine is my sister. She is the oldest of 6 girls, I am the youngest. Maxine is the 4th sister I have lost, They all have left a huge whole in my life. I dearly loved all my sisters, and will miss Maxine. She was always there for me to listen, help and just being fun and very kind.
I will miss her a lot.*

Clare Raney - May 25, 2011 at 12:00 AM

AR

“ *To Sharon and Marlie
I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for the passing of your wonderful mother. Your mom was a friend to everyone, I have knowen her for over sixty years, She never changed her way of living and loving her fellow human beings. She has played a importand part of my life and my growth in Jesus Christ. I grew up in a family of fourteen kids we where very poor so nobody in the family came to see us except maxine. My parents loved her like a daughter too even though she was a cousin. But when she came to visit it was special to all of us kids we all loved her so much and she loved us. I will always think of your mother as a beautiful flower that blooms year around. Maxine has showen me that family is more importand then any meterial things. I know that she is with the lord today. But i will always remember her with fondness and love. Rest in peace my wounderful Friend
Al & Maxine Roeder*

Al Roeder - May 25, 2011 at 12:00 AM