

Dana Robinson

September 26, 1957 - April 21, 2024

Dana Sue Robinson

Sept. 26, 1957 - April 21, 2024

Dana Sue Robinson, cherished mother, daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin and friend, died April 21, 2024 at her Queen Anne cottage in Oregon City, Oregon.

Dana was born Sept 26, 1957 in Ames, Iowa, grew up in Tucson, Arizona and lived in Oregon her whole adult life. She is survived by daughter, Sierra Kroos of Portland, Oregon; and father and sisters, Donald Robinson, Sarah Kirk (Jim) and Ann Robinson (Adam Boklage) of Tucson, Arizona. She was predeceased by her first husband, Lonnie Kroos; her long-time companion, Sky Fulton; mother, Sue Robinson; and brother, Bruce Robinson.

She graduated from Canyon del Oro High School in Tucson. Retired as Emergency Management Director for Clackamas County in 2012.

Dana was a birder, master gardener, artist and animal lover. She leaves behind an elderly beagle and 3 cats.

Dana loved with her whole heart and was loved beyond measure by Jesus Christ and a host of wonderful family and friends. She was beautiful in every way and generous to a fault. She is missed.

Memorial service for Dana will be at 11 am Saturday, May 25 at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 1431 W. Magee Road in Tucson. Feel free to wear cheerful colors.

Contributions can be sent to Audubon Society, Sierra Club or Prescott Bluebird Recovery Project.

“ Dana was the best sister-in-law anyone could ask for! She always remembered birthdays & holidays with the most personal notes in the cutest cards.

She always helped Sierra & I keep the memories of Lonnie alive.

Dana was a good Mom & did the best job of giving love & encouragement to her proudest achievement, Sierra Ann...

We will miss Dana & her wonderful laughter & sense of humor.

Love, Ro & Marty 🌸

“ Dana was a wonderful woman with a quirky sense of humor and a quick wit. She was a fair and impartial manager, even though she expected honesty, if discipline was in order; I respected her for that. Godspeed, Dana.
