

Daniel K. Duncan

January 28, 1955 - May 20, 2010

Daniel K Duncan was born January 28, 1955 in Hillsboro, Oregon just southwest of Portland, Oregon. He was the son of Wesley and Rita Duncan. Dan had an older sister, Peggy Lefebvre of Beaverton, Oregon and a younger brother Randy Duncan of Virginia. Dan married DeAnn Duncan and had two wonderful children Dana and Daniel.

Dan was a hard working man who found his way into Law Enforcement which he made a successful career. He started working as a corrections deputy with the Tillamook County Sheriff's Office, then as a patrol deputy. He worked for Tillamook County for nine years, started a family and served the community with dedication and honor. In 1985 Dan became a patrol officer with the Lake Oswego Police Department. He moved his family back to the valley, settling in Oregon City where he would stay for the next 25 years.

Dan climbed through the ranks of the Lake Oswego Police Department, always working hard and leading with integrity. He developed long lasting relationships with those he worked with, forming a strong family like bond that lasted throughout his 25 years of service. He worked his way up to the position of Chief of Police, where he stayed for the last 7 years of his life. He was a strong leader who led by example, and usually had a big smile on his face. Dan loved being a cop, and appreciated each and every one of his co-workers.

Throughout his 55 years Dan lived life to the fullest. He loved his family, his friends, and enjoyed spending time doing the things he loved with those people. His six grandchildren looked up to and adored him, and they loved spending time with him. He was a mentor, a teacher, and rock of a man. He was a good fisherman, great hunter, and lived to be in the outdoors. Despite his life being too short, he has left having done it all. He will forever be missed, and there will never be another person like Dan.

“ There are several things that I'd like to say first of all it took me a while to write down what all I wanted to say as there were so many emotions that I just could not quite put into words. I married into the Duncan extended family when I married Tony 10 years ago and the love that they had for me and for my kids is an example I hope to strive for. Dan was an amazing police officer, husband, father, grandfather, son and a friend. I can honestly say that he really lived life to the fullest and I fell so blessed to have the Duncan family a part of mine. There are many things that I will miss, but I know he will always be with us. Right now as we speak Tony has a piece of him hunting that big elk he's after. I just want to say thank you for allowing me to have know you because you have made me a better person. I love you and will miss you very much.

“ Dan was a good friend to my brothers (David and Doug Nafziger) and my parents (Dan & Jo Nafziger). In the times I saw Dan (with them) he struck me as often laughing, telling a joke (or enjoying one being told on him). He seemed like a lovely, caring, big spirited man. I can only imagine how much he will be missed. My prayers and wishes for some ease in sadness over time are with his family and friends.

“ I am priviledged to have known Dan for close to 20 years. I was fortunate to have worked with him as fellow officers in neighboring cities and I considered him a professional mentor. I was even blessed to be able to hunt with he and his family once and I will certainly miss swapping stories with an old friend. Dan was always willing to help out no matter the request and I will truly miss him. The Law Enforcement profession lost a great one! May God's peace be with you during this time-Jeff

“ I really liked talking with Dan when we were at training together or at conferences. He always had a smooth and confident demeanor that left everyone around him more clam and insightful.

Dan was never afraid to speak his mind but did so in a way that did not hurt others. He was an asset to Law Enforcement throughout the State and will really be missed.

“ Dear Pa,

The day I left the kitchen table, and looked out the window of a black F150, at a little blue ranch house as we drove away, I knew that day, the day that Danny brought me home to meet “the family”, that this was the family I needed to be in. I was amazed first at how you hugged your son and the glimmer in your eye when you talked to him about his day. And when you turned to give me a hug, little did I know the many years I would be encircled in the warm embrace of one of the kindest, open, generous men that I had ever had the privilege of meeting.

As I became more a part of this family, I reveled in how you adored your wife. And had learned that the kidding of the smoke detector being the dinner bell, had been a long lasting joke in this family. I loved how DeAnn laid out your clothes, made sure dinner was on the table, and had no problem telling you to “shut your mouth” when you became too surly. I knew that this was a family who understood marriage, the traditional values and the commitment it took to be true partners.

I admired the way in which you spoke to your daughter. Who, in a way was more like you than the son who followed in your footsteps, an exterior of toughness, but a warm center that was saved for her closest loved ones; and soon when she was married, I saw how much you loved her and how hard it was for you to let her go.

I cried at my wedding when you supported your son, by being his best man. You are and always will be his best friend. I adored how you held our sons, and how you looked at them with pride. They have been blessed with your love, and we will have to do our best to convey how much you impacted their lives, albeit too short. You have left a legacy. One in which my boys will never get to see firsthand.

I love you, and will miss you more than I can ever describe. You were a true father to me, loving me unconditionally. You had high expectations of your family, and most of all you modeled the behavior that you expected. You were honest, held integrity, and had a great sense of humor. I know that our family will do our best to keep your image alive, to tell stories of the great times. And to pass on your values everyday we live our lives.

*Love you so much, forever.

“ Dan made a point to meet with me at the Oregon Association of Chief's of Police conference in Seaside in 2009 to congratulate me on becoming Troutdale's Police Chief. We immediately connected due to his terrific sense of humor and although we did not know each other well, it was obvious Dan was a man of deep compassion and most certainly alot of fun to be with. Our loss will be felt by many, but his presence did so much for all the people he touched. I wish Dan's family God's blessings.
