“ Is this Dawn Walton who is married to Bob Walton? Bob played basketball at U of I in the late '50's - early '60's. If this is not the same family, please forgive the intrusion.

“ I can only imagine the pain you feel. Take time to heal. In the mean time, we'll miss you on the course.

“ Father God created us, and when our work on this earth is done, He calls us home.

Dawnie's work is done and she is now in Father God's house.

It is the circle of life.

Dan and I had the pleasure of knowing and loving Dawnie for over 25 years.

Dawnie, Robbie, Dan and I would get together for wonderful food (provided Dawnie prepared it, as she was a fabulous cook), superb wines and great company.

The four of us traveled to Napa one year to sample various wines and did not find a bad bottle. Robbie, Dan and I decided on a mud bath while there, Dawnie declined, I should have listened to her!

Dawnie was an avid reader and we often traded books. She was beautiful and generous with a great sense of humor. We treasure her friendship.

Dan and I will miss your ready smile, your love of wine, your fantastic cooking, but most of all we will miss you.

We love you Dawnie. We love you Robbie.
