“ Dorothy & I grew up together

more like sisters, being so close in age. We spent countless hours playing paper dolls in grandma's living room. We shared the most private of secrets two young girls could share. We pretty much had the world figured out before we were even teenagers! I promise to keep our secrets in my heart until we can once again be together. I love you so much Dottie! Remember, " first pick "!

Our loss is heaven's gain!
