In Loving Memory of Elizabeth (Liz) Jemison
March 17, 1958 - September 21, 2023

Elizabeth Jemison, fondly known as Liz, was a beloved wife and devoted mother of five, who left this world on September 21, 2023. She was born on March 17, 1958, and her life was a testament to love, strength, and resilience.

Liz's journey was marked by her unwavering commitment to her family. As the wife of the late Roy Jemison, she stood as a pillar of strength and grace, weathering life's storms with determination and grace.

Liz was not only a wife but a beloved sister and daughter, bringing warmth and laughter to her family gatherings. Her presence added a special glow to every occasion, and her memory will forever be cherished by those she leaves behind.

Her greatest joy was found in being a mother of five and a grandma. Liz's nurturing spirit and boundless love shaped her children into the remarkable individuals they are today.

Beyond her family, Liz was a caring friend and neighbor, always ready with a smile and a helping hand. Her kindness and compassion left an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Liz's life may have come to an end, but her memory will forever be cherished by those who loved her. In the hearts of her family and friends, she will live on as a source of inspiration and love.

May she rest in eternal peace, reunited with her beloved husband, Roy.
