“ Frances was an inspiration to all of us at Prince of Life. I will miss her beautiful smile, her zest for life and her wonderful Sunday morning hugs that went from her heart to my heart. She was a remarkable lady.

“ A poem that makes me think of you Aunt Frances. With love.

I AM FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee, God wanted me now; He set me free!

“ It lightens my heart to know that every memory I have of you, you are smiling. That will live on forever in our spirits. Much love always.

“ Memories - sweet memories of a childhood that I would not otherwise have had. She was a role model for me, a surrogate mother and a dear friend. I thank her for the history and I send love and regards to Claudia, Lynn and Cherry with regrets that I won't be able to be there on Sat. Marian knows how I feel but I wanted to let you other girls know how much love I have for you all - how much gratitude I have for you letting me share with you those earlier years of my life. I will always be the better for it as will those lives I am lucky enough to touch myself. You all helped me become the person I am and I hope I will be a credit to her for that. Thank you and know I am thinking of you all. Pit

“ I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I still remember days spent at your farmhouse in Moscow with our mothers and Jean Linsey doing cookies and all sorts of fun things. We had good mothers, weren't we lucky??Blessing and peace to all the family.
