“ Dear Stewart Family,

I am so sorry for your loss. I had Mr. Stewart as a teacher during the sixth through eighth grades in the mid-seventies. He was always one of my favorites, and I always respected and admired him. My favorite memory of him was a time that a seventh grader, who thought he was really something, put a ball bearing in his mouth. He managed to start choking on it, but not to fear, Mr. Stewart knew just what to do! He grabbed Mr. Hot Stuff by his heels, held him upside-down, and smacked him on the back until the ball bearing dislodged!

We all thought he was a wonderful teacher and a great man. May God bless and comfort you at this time.

Sincerely, Rachel (Craig) Whisner
