“ DEAR FAMILY,

PLEASE ACCEPT OUR CONDOLENSCES

OF AUNTIE IRMAS PASSING.

THE LAST TIME I SAW HER AND UNCLE BUD WAS IN APRIL OF 1995

WHEN THEY PAYED A SURPRISE VISIT TO MY HUSBAND,
ROGER, AND MY HOME DURING A TRIP EAST. WE ALL HAD A WONDERFUL VISIT.

I WILL NEVER FORGET WHAT A WONDERFUL PERSON SHE WAS.

SINCERELY, NIECE BONNIE JUNE,

AND SON JOSEPH RALICKI

MY HOME

“ Aunt Irma is a joy to her family. Her 6 brothers loved having her for a sister in their family. She means so much to all of us and we are happy for her life well lived and her faith in her Savior. We are sure she is enjoying her life of increased knowledge and love.

“ To me Auntie Meach was an exceptional example of a woman, wife and mother living her life for Christ. I fondly remember our visits to Pendleton and Portland. A testament to her faith is the strong Christian family surviving her. You, Katie, Rob, Bud and spouses, have lovingly served your Mom with respect and dignity as she waited to meet her Lord and family and Heaven. She taught you well.
