I never met your son but I wanted you to know that after reading all of the wonderful things that people had to say about him, it is very evident that he is well loved. I am so sorry for your loss and I wish for you patience and understanding in the days to come. May God Bless your family and keep you strong.

I am living a less austere life because of knowing Jakob. He was really good at living a joyful life and being so caring of everyone he came in contact with.

I do hope maybe there could be some annual event or something every year to honor him and the love he put into the world. Maybe a dance nite?

I would also like to know if the family would like the support of us showing up at any hearings to put away the monster that killed him for life.

“ I'm so sad and can't believe what happened to Jacob. I started going to bishops 6 years and he cut all my kids hair and was so loving and caring. I just can't believe it....going there and not seeing him. God bless you Jacob “ Jakob I'm so glad I met you and have my friend to thank her for recommending I visit you for a haircut 8 years ago. We both cared about that friend, and tried helping her anyway we could. We had that bond. You are such a kind and happy person and will be missed by more than you could imagine. You will never be forgotten my friend.

“ May his brightness and cheerful smile that he brought into our lives forever light any darkened path we wander until we too find ourselves at the end of our lives' journey. The impact of how he touched each of us will never be forgotten. Thank you, Jacob for your life that you allowed us to embrace and to share. My heart extends much love and hope for inner peace to his family, partner and friends.

“ I met Jakob when we were both teens way back when. Right away I could see the kindness in those green eyes of his. He always was someone who stood out, in a great way. It's extremely heartbreaking hearing of him leaving so young but he left with so many people that can only say great things about him. My condolences.

“ You brought up a GOOD person, and that must magnify your heartbreak even beyond the circumstances of his loss. May you heal, and hold in your hearts the fact that he was good and kind, and that is an amazing achievement...and it MATTERS.

“ Between tears, I marvel at these videos and pictures of the pure, sweet and loving soul, Jakob Jay. Please allow me to introduce, Circa Summer of 1985, I was bestowed with the absolute privilege of being a Summer Mom to one loving five-year-old child, Jacob, sitting next to another loving child, my son Aaron. Jacob has always been free spirited and he really brightened, my home, family and life. From the swimming pool in the back yard keeping up toasty brown and giving us a healthy appetite, Jacob and Aaron could always go to my mom's (nana) for the best bean burrito in the world and could always count on ice cream and cold soda from my dad (tata) and fun and games from Aunt Patsy and Uncle Al. I had plenty of high heels for little Jacob to clomp around in round and round and we loved playing dress up together with beads, hats, shawls and other fancy free accessories. His last words to me were, "You'll always be my Summer Mom." Jacob and Aaron, my sweet angels, rest in peace my two darling sons, until we meet again, may God hold you both in his loving arms. Your Sumer Mom,
Always.....Olga Carrasco,
