

Jennie Neeltje DeBruyn

November 25, 1918 - March 23, 2011

Jennie Leman DeBruyn, 92, died March 23, 2011, in Wilsonville Oregon

Jennie was born in 1918 in the Netherlands. She married William DeBruyn 1942.

She is survived by three children, Willie (Younger) John, and Leroy.

They immigrated to Provo, 1942, proudly gaining citizenship 1955. They resided in Provo, and West Jordan, until 2009 moving to Oregon to be with their children.

Jennie was excellent at needle work, esp. knitting, crocheting and cross stitch; she loved gambling, playing cards with friends, and watching As the World Turns. She played games with grandchildren and great-grandchildren, amazing them with her ability to juggle. They traveled to Holland several times. They spent many happy hours at West Jordan senior center. She was a member of the LDS church.

She will be greatly missed.
