

Jerie Brickner

May 20, 1932 - April 7, 2018

Jerie Brickner, 85, of Charbonneau in Wilsonville passed peacefully in his sleep on Saturday April 7, 2018 of natural causes.

Jerie was born to Ernest and Hildur Brickner on May 20, 1932 in Minneapolis, MN. Both parents and brother Thomas preceeded him in death. His mother immigrated from Norway as a young girl. Jerie was very proud of his Norwegian heritage.

Jerie graduated from the University of Minnesota with a BA in Economics and married Clarice Anderson April 16, 1955. He served in the USAF from 1955-58, then spent 35 years with the 3M Company. He always enjoyed being with family and friends, golfing, fishing, woodworking and traveling with Clary were favorites among his many pastimes. After he retired he spent 15 years volunteering as a tour guide at Evergreen Aviation and Space Museum. A storyteller by nature, always with a new joke to share or sweet comment to give, he kept people laughing until the end, he will be missed by many.

He is survived by his loving wife Clary, daughters Amy (Jeff Moore), Susie (Mike Caster); son Marty Brickner (Judith), 8 grandchildren, Michelle Nishimura, Kevin and Krissy Moore, Lauren Braun, Steve and Griffin Caster, Jenna and Allie Brickner and 2 great grandchildren, Bailey Rose Nishimura and Baby Boy Braun, still in the oven.

If you'd like to make a donation, in lieu of flowers the family has chosen

Evergreen Aviation and Space Museum, where donations support their education programs.

“ Lauren Braun...I have sent you a friend request on Facebook. I am your 3rd cousin or 1st cousin twice removed (I'm never sure how that works). I am trying to make contact with your Grandmother Clarice or your Aunt Amy, your mother Susie (she is your mother, right?), or your Uncle Marty.

Thanks! Ellen Andresen Youssif (eyoussif43@gmail.com)

“ Dear Clary, Amy, Susie, and Marty and families,

Since I was worried that I no longer get a Christmas card from Clary, I decided to see if I could find out any information and today found Jerie's obituary. I am very sad that no one in my family knew about it, and therefore couldn't attend or send condolences in a timely manner. I know that all of you miss Jerie immensely.

I always remember Jerie with a smiling face and a happy demeanor. It has been so long since I've seen him or talked to him, that I don't remember more. I missed his and Clary's visit and the party at Lou's house when they last visited Minnesota. I remember being jealous that I couldn't attend. I remember that he and Clary were always SO happy. Clary always was so calm and kind. I remember playing with Amy & Susie at Olga's house when we were all kids.

How is Clary doing? Since my most recent Christmas card was returned as undeliverable, I wonder where she is living. How are all of you and your families?

I do hope that we can stay in touch in the future. I would love to get everyone's email addresses, home addresses and/or your names on Facebook! I did try awhile ago to find Amy, Susie, and Marty on Facebook. No one to whom I sent a message has responded. :-)

My email is eyoussif43@gmail.com (I would give my private email, but I don't do that publicly)

My Facebook name is Ellen Andresen Youssif

Love, Ellen (your cousin)

“ This is the chair that Grandpa made for me. He constructed one for each of his grandkids and hand carved a different design in the back that represents each of us individually. He was an incredibly talented and thoughtful Grandpa!
