Always called everyone honey...would give the shirt off her back to anyone. She didn't have much but what she did have, meant the world to her. She would never forget a birthday, holiday without a phone call to her loved ones. She would say, “gotta love me”, Lubba Lubba Lubba you” and “love your to infinity and beyond”. She was always a fighter, stubborn but a heart of gold. She fought even to her last day here with us. She will be forever missed and loved.
