“ So it's been 3 years and I find that her number is still in my cellphone. While we weren't close; she was a dear friend from college and I always intended of trying to hang out more. Life got in the way.

Today I was reminded of some pretty awesome memories from a post our mutual friend Max made on facebook.

It's so weird for her to be gone. I hope she has peace knowing how many people she impacted in her short life and how proud I am to be one of those people.

“ I have nothing but positive memories of Kayla from every interaction we've had with one another. She was so rad, so kind and I always enjoyed her humor. We danced together at Ember's for my 21st birthday and she helped make that night unforgettable. She lent her beauty and sass as a pin-up/punk model in a group I had created for a car club. She always had so much enthusiasm and was there to help out with whatever I needed to make those shoots happen. I am deeply saddened by her passing and my heart goes out to her family and friends. She will be greatly missed.

“ Kayla you were a big part of my life and I will miss you forever. You helped me in my life when I couldn't help myself and for that I am grateful. There will always be a piece of my heart missing because it lies with you. I love you Kayla.

Here is our friendship in a nutshell. Please copy and paste the link below to hear our song, she recorded it. It is a song Kayla and I wrote together one summer. I will always cherish this song and keep it close.

“ I met Kayla in elementary school, and remember being pretty good buddies with her. She was my field trip bus buddy, and she always made me laugh. Sad to hear of her passing. My thoughts and love go out to her family and friends.

“ Sadness...I already miss your face and the sarcastic small talk that always showed up with your visits! Your name has been spoken a thousand times since we heard that you left this life and every time it has, a warm memory of how your presence affected someone who loved you has been told. I am glad to have had the privilege of knowing you here.

Wishing all who have loved you peace and solace in the days ahead. xo.

“ It's hard to even know what to say. Such a sweet and loving person and funny and funky and always there to lend a helping hand. I loved her dearly. I only experienced a small piece of her life and so that is all I can speak from but she brought me joy and laughter and much happiness. There are so many pieces to a persons life as we all know. This is the piece I know of her life. I will miss her as well every single person I know who knew her also . ❤️🙏

“ I met Kayla in eight grade, we are junk food together in Spanish class (especially gummy bears or worms). Our sophomore year of high school we hung out a lot, going to concerts at the Paris theater, and "trick-or-treating" (which turned in to a lot more tricking than treating). But one memory that has always stuck out in my head was the time we were getting ready to go to a show...we were at her house and had decided we would try this glow in the dark/UV light hair temporary hair dye. Well needless to say, it ended up getting kinda everywhere (on us....hair and clothes, especially pants)...and when we got to the show it just kind of ended up looking like we had gotten jizz everywhere. Well, we learned not to do that again.

Kayla lived across the street from me when she was young. She was always full of spunk. I have fond memories of her. She will be missed. My condolences to David, Brandon and Janelle.
