

Kimberly Dawn Carter

December 27, 1967 - April 14, 2021

We sadly announce the passing of Kim Carter, 53, of Beaverton, Oregon. Kimberly Carter was born in Washington County, Oregon on, 27 December 1967. She grew up in Beaverton with her Father, Mother, and Sister. Kim attended Beaverton High School, where she earned her diploma. Later, Kim would establish her own home in the Beaverton area.

Kim loved spending time with her loved ones, including fur babies, but she especially loved spending time with her nephew, nieces, and great-nephew. She always found a way to make holidays special, and she never forgot a birthday. Kim was a fantastic baker, cookies being her specialty. A visit from Kim always meant yummy, warm cookies, her mama's meatloaf, and mashed potatoes. Kim was incredibly talented at many crafts; crafting made her happy. The beautiful gifts she handmade for her family and friends made them happy too. Dogs, essential oils, the beach, Crocs, hot chocolate, snow, Bomba socks, and music are some of the things Kim loved. Kim was a fiercely loyal friend and would do anything she could to help her friends and loved ones in a time of need. Kim will always be remembered with much love and gratitude for the memories she leaves with us.

One of Kim's most beloved friends, Dwight, shared:

Kim was many things. The best puppy parent, a scrapbooker extraordinaire, fiercely independent and proud, generous to a fault, a pepperoni pizza connoisseur, outspoken, lover of kitchen gadgets, had a touch of stubbornness, listened when no one else wanted to, was cleverly sarcastic, made the best peppermint bark, hated the color orange, understood me even when she did not, collected the softest blankets, embraced my idiosyncrasies, watched the Hallmark channel too much, but most of all she was my dearest friend. I am grateful that she will always be a part of my life. I miss you, Kim.

As a professional, she worked for Wells Fargo for 30+ years and held various positions. Her supervisor and friend at work, Gary Brewer, shared:

"I have worked with Kim for over 16 of her 30+ years at Wells Fargo. Kim was the hardest worker when it came to her job and always did her best while working on virtually any task. Not having Kim in our lives is hard to even imagine from a worker or friend's perspective.

Some of our most fond memories of Kim were traveling with her and our team on business trips. She made it very clear to all of us that she loves Chick-Fil-A, so we would have to stop at a Chick-Fil-A on many of our business trips for lunch! Kim was so happy to have some Chick-Fil-A memorabilia we had gifted her. She was so very grateful to all of us for the gift. We will all think of Kim whenever we pass or even visit a Chick-Fil-A for the rest of our lives.

Outside of work, Kim was by far one of the kindest and most thoughtful persons you could meet. She loved her stamp booking and crafts and sent many of us personal cards for special occasions. She also loved her dog, Jake. We often shared pet stories, and it was well known Jake was her baby. You could feel her love for him.

Kim will be greatly missed by all of us here at Wells Fargo. Our thoughts and prayers are with anyone whose life was touched by Kim.

Kim, we will miss you and thank you for everything you have done for us.

“ Kim was so many things. She was a hard worker, oil expert, dog lover, craft queen, witty, funny, and passionate about the things she believed in. I love that you always got the real side of Kim. She was such a great co-worker and really knew her stuff. She could remember things from way back and was always happy to educate people. :) When my dog had an ear ache one night, she was the first person I turned to for oil suggestions. She was quick to pull out all her reference books and send me lots of info to help. Her love for Jake was awesome. I always loved seeing her pup stories about their daily walk or his reactions to things. And she was so talented with making things! My biggest regret is that I could not decide which of Kim's signs that she created I wanted to buy and did not get one. But I will always think of her when I walk into a craft store. And I will miss her FB posts. She always stood for what she believed in. We lost a mutual co-worker about 5 years ago and we grieved together and was able to share funny stories for comfort. Now I will find comfort and a smile each time I eat at Chick-Fil-A and think of her. I am thankful I had the chance to know Kim even better over the last year or so and to call her my friend, even though it makes it even harder to say goodbye.

“ I’m really saddened by Kim’s loss and I want to share my deepest condolences with her friends and family, including her Wells Fargo family. Kim was a teammate of mine at Wells Fargo for 10 years. I didn’t know her as well personally as some of my colleagues – most of my interactions with Kim were on the clock and strictly business. When we traveled together, however, I met a “new-to-me” Kim who had a sharp wit, was snarky, and genuinely funny. I’ll miss both sides of her. As many of you know, Kim did not like having her picture taken, but after much coaxing, we did get her to pose for the team picture attached from our trip to Dallas in 2012. This is how I’ll remember Kim (well, this and Chick-fil-a of course!) and I’m grateful to have had the opportunity to know her.
