

Lourane Lawrence

November 13, 1927 - December 10, 2008

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Lourane Lawrence

January 28, 2023 at 02:51 PM

“ I will always miss going over to her house and talking to her. She was one of the nicest people I have ever met. Every time I went over to her house she would give me a cookie that was as sweet as she was. Love you grama.

Nick Gower - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Lourane,

There is a song that says " It is not what we take when we go, but what we leave behind...." Lourane left us all; with something that will live in all of us forever.

Suzan Linhart - December 12, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ She was more like a mother then mother-in-law to me, and my wonderful seastar. I will miss her beautiful smile and the unexpected potty mouth. I miss the wonderful books she would vividly describe as she was readng them which I would always have to read after her. She is at peace now. I can just see her in heaven visiting up a storm.

Cindy Lawrence - December 11, 2008 at 12:00 AM

LG

“ I will never forget the feeling of warmth and comfort felt the minute you walked in the door of the house, always happy to see you she was ready to sit and chat at the table.... or on the porch if the weather was nice... days spent at Red white and blue then a walk to burgerville for french frys and a sprite. I loved to follow her around the house, "her shadow" is what she called me.... I feel her by my side... She is where she needs to be now... I love you Grandma.

Lori Gower - December 11, 2008 at 12:00 AM