“ She was a good teacher, taught us well. Why she ever put up with our antics in kitchen 6 my junior year is beyond me. Three of us pulled a lot stuff and thought we got away with it. Then the day arrived when Mrs. Coffman walked into our kitchen and all the things we (Gene, Sean and Myself) had stuck to the ceiling fell in front of her. She looked up then down then up again then down. It made for an interesting class in for the three of us in Mr. Freid’s office.

She was one of the better teachers, pulled no punches, and was straight with you.

Thank you for your teachings
