“ My Mother caught a humming bird that was trapped in her garage at the beach, and it just laid in her hand while we took pictures of it. It tells me she was one of God's special angels, because it felt so safe in her hands. ”

“ My Mother was so special, she had so much love in her heart. We might not of agreed on somethings, she always use to say if she said it was black I would say it's white. But it worked for us. She loved all kinds of music, I remember Saturday music playing and her cleaning. I remember she liked my AC/DC that it must be the drums and the Indian in her. One of my favorite things to do is just go for a drive, never really have a plan we would just go exploring. There were times at the coast it would fog in, so we would drive in land to get some sun and have lunch. We loved our sunshine. I love you always Mom.
