“ Having the chance to take care of your mom I can tell you she was so proud of you and her grandchildren. Her love for all of you spilled out whenever I was speaking with her. I'm very sorry for your loss.

Kimberley Volk - October 21, 2019 at 09:50 AM

Thank you Kim! I appreciate you sharing your memories of her. It feels good to know that my mom can be remembered by the love she had for us. I am thankful we made her proud. We love her and miss her. Losing her has hit us all very hard.

“"The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy."

Martin Luther King, Jr.

Even when you could no longer stand you praised and loved the Lord. You were a woman of stalwart faith!

Anette and Pastor Ron prayed over us today. They remember you and thanked me for sharing my experience today at the four square church. I didn't know how many memories you had built with me there. Everywhere I looked I was reminded of you. To them serving pancakes in the back under then tent in the rain to the velvet blue colored carpet on the stairs to the stage that reminded of the glorious day you were baptised. That day was the day the Holy Spirit blessed me with full knowledge of his presence. I remember how you would cry during worship songs and during sermons and I always thought it was beautiful that you had been moved to tears. Well today for the first time in church I was moved to full on sobbing. Thank you for bringing me to the foot of the cross through your actions and love for Jesus! I miss you and all the little things I took for granted when you were still here. I would love to go to church with you next Sunday. We could go early for pancakes :)

Definition of Stalwart:

Marked by outstanding strength and vigor of body, mind, or spirit

STRONG, STOUT, STURDY, STALWART, TOUGH, TENACIOUS mean showing power to resist or to endure.

This word reminds me of you. This word reminds me of me. This word reminds me of my loving friends. You have inspired me to surround myself with people and woman of stalwart faith, stalwart love, and/or stalwart strength. Also some twisted humor so we can all laugh together through our many seasons.
