

Marilyn Tina Phillips

November 5, 1946 - February 16, 2024

In loving memory of Marilyn T. Phillips

With heavy hearts, we bid farewell to Marilyn T. Phillips, a vibrant soul who embarked on her final journey on February 16, 2024. She lived her life with unyielding passion and embraced every moment with gusto. Marilyn was a woman of many facets, but above all, she stayed true to herself and the things that brought her joy.. cooking, memories of her husband, getting her nails and hair done!

Her wanderlust knew no bounds as she traversed the globe, exploring new horizons and embracing new adventures. Everywhere she traveled she would bring a piece of the culture home, witnessed by her cooking and collection of mementos. She found solace in the beauty of this world, her adventurous spirit illuminating every path she took.

She found joy in the simple pleasures of life- a cigarette in hand, a glass raised high, and spicy laughter filling the air. Her stories were mesmerizing, her laugh infectious.

But amidst her adventures, her heart found its true home in the love she shared with her husband, John Phillips, and beloved dogs. Until their passing, they were her constants, her pillars of strength, and her source of unconditional love. Their bond was unbreakable, woven with threads of devotion and companionship.

Though she may have departed from this world, the memories of Marilyn will forever remain etched in our hearts. May her adventurous spirit continue to inspire us, her laughter echo in our memories, and her love guide us through life's journey.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Humane Society in honor of Marilyn's love for animals.

Rest in peace, dear Marilyn. Your spirit will continue to soar, forever in our hearts.

“ I am beyond sad about Marilyn's passing. We have been friends since we were in 5th grade together at D. A. Grout Elementary School. We became much closer after the passing of her beloved husband, John. For years we talked on the phone several times a week, and up until Covid, would get together at one of our favorite coffee shops about once a week. I will miss her lovely smile and laugh and all the confidences we shared together. I know she is with John and her precious pets and in a better place. Love you, dear Marilyn!
