

Maxfield Joseph Hermanson

August 17, 1989 - August 26, 2021

Max Hermanson was born in Portland, Oregon and lived most of his life in Oregon City. He was a talented writer, music producer, and artist. He loved skydiving, motorcycle riding, music festivals, and most of all his family. He was a beloved son, brother and friend. Max sadly passed away at the age of 32, on August 26th 2021.

He leaves behind his parents, Gordon and Lynett, an older sister Summer and a younger brother, Eli, who loved him more than words can express. Max also leaves behind a cat and many close friends who cared for him greatly.

Max was known for his many passions and dreams - of what he could do and the places he could go. His most shining characteristic was truly his love for family and friends.

Donation:

In lieu of flowers, we would like to invite you to make a donation in Max's name, to his best friend, Kevin Hess. Kevin is currently battling a recent diagnosis of leukemia and has a long road ahead. His go-fund-me page can be found here: https://www.gofundme.com/f/help-kevin-while-he-beats-cancer?utm_campaign=p_cp+share-sheet&utm_medium=copy_link_all&utm_sourc

If you are able, anything helps.

Invitation to the Memorial:

A memorial will take place on September 19th, beginning at 4:00 p.m. ending at 7:00 p.m. please bring a blanket or chair and a memory to share. This will take place outdoors and we kindly ask that all those in attendance bring and wear a mask.

If you plan on coming, please RSVP to <https://forms.gle/EBJBsm32S2uPvpGS7>

As a final note, for those of you not vaccinated, please take steps in order to do so. Max would have wanted that.

“ For Kevin's 21st birthday, we went on a road trip to Reno. Kevin, Logan, Max, myself and my girlfriend Lei. We went over a 3 day weekend and had a blast. I grew to love Max over the years. Max was always there for Kevin, they were there for each other. I will miss Max a great deal.
