

Mike McCracken

May 7, 1974 - December 17, 2016

The world lost a beautiful soul on December 17th, 2016. Michael Wayne McCracken of Hawthorne, California and Oregon City, Oregon is survived by his wife, Angel, his daughter, Danielle, and countless friends and family. He was preceded in death by his parents Linda and Wayne.

Mike was known for being a true “gentle giant” and being unwaveringly loyal to his friends and family. Throughout his entire life he fiercely stood up for the underdog, regardless of his own personal safety. He was a die-hard L.A. Kings, Dodgers, Galaxy and UCLA fan, and a big kid who loved his Legos, puzzles, animals, playing guitar and hockey, and all kinds of music, especially Pearl Jam.

We ask that you do something today to “pay it forward” on Mike’s behalf. He was the epitome of love and generosity, and would love that there will be more smiles and joy in the world because of him.

In addition to Mike being an organ donor, his family has donated a lot of his clothing to an amazing organization in Oregon City, The Father's Heart Street Ministry. This organization helps feed the hungry, has a clothing exchange and laundry facility, and provides overnight shelter to those in need. Upon providing our donation, we were saddened to learn that the founder, Teri Gant, just passed away on Dec. 28, 2016. If you are able to give, they welcome food and clothing donations (for men, women and children), particularly warm clothing during this time of year. Thank you.
