

Nancy Ann White

November 6, 1937 - August 15, 2023

Nancy Ann White was born on November 6th, 1937. She was the daughter of the late Gilbert Manning and Katherine Ross.

Nancy earned her associate degree in Mental Health from Mt. Hood Community College in 1977, graduating Phi Theta Cappa. She then became an Alcohol and Drug counselor at Multnomah County Corrections, and a Paramedic/EMT. Throughout Nancy's life she was an artist, making traditional Lakota-Sioux jewelry, beading, and leather craftsmanship. Nancy enjoyed oil painting, jewelry making, and attending powwows. Nancy was a published author and poet*. She was also an avid sky gazer and storyteller.

Nancy married George William White; they shared 43 years together. Nancy and George were snowbirds that traveled to Arizona during the winter. They traveled throughout the country for many years together.

Nancy loved her family and had many friends. Her fulfillment came from helping people. She also had a special place in her heart for dogs and cats, especially feeding and rescuing strays, and feral cats.

Nancy died at age the age of 85 on August 15th, 2023. She was preceded in death by: Gilbert Manning and Katherine Ross; Father and Mother, George White; Husband, Vicki McDonald; stepdaughter, John Manning; brother, James Manning; Brother, James Jones; son, Michael Manning; son, Joy Prosize; daughter.
