“ It was an honor to be with Dad and Linda and the rest of the Alaska family in Anchorage to honor Grandma Naomi. In our early years of marriage (before life got too crazy), I enjoyed writing letters to her and sending her photos of the great-great grandchildren. It is a joy to know that she raised such great men. I consider her gift to me is the father I do not have, but have now: my Dad-Charles Sampson, Jr. May you walk each day with love in your heart to honor the memory of your mother.

Love,

Sherry

“ • As the flowers bloom and the sun shines, so will our heart again. Birth is a beginning and death a destination.
