“ When I was about 16 years old, Paul came up to me in church and handed me a pair of drumsticks. He said “the Lord told me to give these to you”. I still have them and I play drums these days. Usually Paul crosses my mind whenever I play. Thanks for the love man! That was a simple gesture and a life changing moment for me.

There were two things that were a definite with Paul, the love of music, and the love of giving a kid inspiration to reach their potential. I am sure those memories are still with him too.
