Some of my earliest and most wonderful memories of the cousins, aunts, uncles, and grandparents were at Glen and Peggy's house. I always got excited when Grandma Bev told me we were going to Glen and Peggy's for a family get together. It was close to home and Grandpa George didn't complain about driving because he got to talk with Glen.

Her love ran deep and strong. Her quiet spirit spoke loudly and beautifully in the lives that surrounded her. she will be missed.
