“ I am so sorry to hear that Pete left his family and friends. I have not seen Pete in many years, but have very fond memories of Pete and the Lazzaretto family. Pete reminds me of his Dad, in the photos.

“ My dear uncle. It was such an honor to be his nephew. My childhood is filled with his booming voice, his fantastic meals, and his gruf teaching from swinging a hammer to building a house. I will miss him dearly, But I am so anxious to see him again. Our time here is but a moment and then were in the presense of the Lord. I cant wait. Until then I will miss the sound of his flip flops and hugs that crack my back...I love my uncle Pete.

“ I could never thank Pete enough for all the kindness and love he showed to my Mom. Reflecting back they really needed each others company and their story was so beautiful. Pete's love for the Lord sets a great example for all his survivors. I highly respected him. I will cherish his cookie sheets forever, inscribed "Made with love from Pete for sweet lil Jen. John 3:16" Right now I miss his loud laugh booming through his house as I visit here. See you in heaven Pete. My faith is too strong to start to question why God seems untimely.

“ It was many years ago when I first met Pete when he and my cousin Villa Ann were dating in high school and I haven't seen him since but I was so happy when I heard he and Villa had found each other again after all the years apart. I just wish their happiness would have been longer but God only gave them what time he gave them but Villa will have wonderful memories and a lovely family thanks to Pete. Looking at the photos I can still see the Pete I knew and remember. God Bless you all and give you peace in your time of sorrow. We will all meet up in Heaven in the end. Love to you Villa Ann
