“ I knew Bob only through phone and email conversations through work. I can honestly say he was by far my favorite customer to work with. I was so sad to hear of his passing. He was always happy and so kind. I will truly miss hearing his voice on the other end of the line! Rest in Peace Bob.

“ It's hard to sum up what I want to say about the impact Bob had on me, personally and professionally.

The night before my first real reporting job started, I hung out with Tom, Barbara and Bob. We had ... fun. At some point in the evening, Bob started calling me "Lois" and I don't think I ever heard him call me Nathalie again after that.

While it seems like just a fun nickname on the surface - Bob had actually helped me create an "alter ego" to help me through the harder stories, to help me pick up the phone and be okay with being uncomfortable ... Bob's support and encouragement gave me both courage and strength. I never told him that.

Maybe because I'd never realized just how much it meant to me.

I'm sorry it took reading the leaflet at his celebration of life to realize he and my son shared their middle name, Henry.

The last time I saw Bob, he introduced my baby to the sweeter side of life by sneaking him a chunk of cake ... after I realized Jake would most likely not die of anaphylactic shock, I was able to laugh it off as Bob just being Bob.

I'm so glad he was and that we had a chance to know him ... Rest in Peace, Feel My Belly Bob.

“ Uncle Bob was one of a kind.
Warm hearted and always was smiling.
He is dearly missed.
"who's the man" is what my favorite memory is. I got him a card that says it on it and sad i couldnt get it to him. I am sad we all didnt have more time with him.
I will always Love and Miss him very much.

“ Here's to the Year of 2011,
The year that took an ole' friend, Bob, to Heaven.
"Feel My Belly, Hard As a Rock"
his eyes full of sparkle, his laughter was true,
never any judgment when he was talking to you.
He'd help you out, come hell or high water
he'd always been there for my son and daughter
To a man of integrity, of courage and strength
a man whose friendship grew greater with length
I took it for granite, not that I didn't care,
just thought he'd always be there Can't help but smile or laugh out loud when thinking of great memories with Bob and the gang over the years.....
and yet with great sadness,
it brings me to tears.
Rest In Peace, Bob and Thank You for sharing your life with us.

“ We loved Bob very much, he was always there when we needed help and family will miss him so much. Star always remembers him especially when she sees Cheetos. I(Sonia) personally would like to say that Bob taught me so many things to never give up, he helped me with all my problems I got my parents into and never got mad he would just say "it's ok" I miss him so much. But we all miss him and know he is in a happier place with no pain.

“ Bob will never be out of my thoughts. I remember him bringing his JD tractor to our home and tilling up our yard and also bringing the grass seed so we could replant it. His heart is huge and I am sad he isn't here physically with us.
