“ A larger than life "character" will be missed in our neighborhood. From cutting my hair before chemo, stacking firewood, rescuing Steve when he had fallen out of his wheelchair (more than once) to he and Sue sharing fish, game and the bounty of their garden. For close to 25 yrs. his "embellished" stories have made us laugh. We will remember him for his giving nature and with laughter. Our thoughts are with the family and Sue just "holler" over the fence if you need us.

“ I didn't know Roy Stevens very well, but after shootin' some pool at his house one day I found out that he was a hearty down-to-earth old cowboy (who really wanted to teach me the right way to play pool). Cole, I've had school with you since 2nd grade, but it doesn't take long to realize how wonderful a person you are. I wondered how someone could have such a kind heart as you, and then I met your dad. I know that his love and kindness lives on through you, and I am so glad to have met the guy who helped make you who you are.

“ Mr Stevens was a great individual full of life and energy. He was always so giving and it was pleasure to know him and see him. He often provided me with fish that he recently caught and I am so thankful to have known him.
