“ I am unable to make it to the service today. However, at church this morning the place was full of the Holy Spirit and I know grandpa was there.

He would have enjoyed the service. It really moved me. At the end of the service they sang a blue grass version of the old hymn "I'll Fly Away". While I am not sure I am almost positive this is a song that was done many times at grandpa's church. It seemed a very fitting song.

I have such wonderful memories of him as a pastor. Full of energy, passion and humor. Pacing and wiping the sweat from his forehead. He had a great laugh and he laughed often. He has been and will continue to be a real blessing to me in my walk with the Lord.

“ Dear Lana,

This past year, I came to know you because of the wonderful letters you would send about my mom. In so doing, I came to know through your blog of your parents, your family, your friends, Jayden, and everything positive in one of the most wonderful people God has created (with the help of the two wonderful parents and family he gave you, no doubt). I am sorry for your loss, but happy that your Dad is in his permanent home in the arms of our heavenly father. Time passes and every day as we go forward, we look back and find new surprises. God's surprises are always wonderful. Take care, God bless, be strong, and stay faithful. Love also to your mom and siblings:)

“ Some of the only memories I can remember of being a kid in Oregon are because of this man, Being chased around the room by Him with his dentures chomping at us, we thought it was the funniest thing. He always had the best sense of Humor, Even the time we spent with him last summer, he still had a little spunk left in him. All who had the privilage to get to know Oliver walked away with a smile. He Lived a long and full life and when it came to the end of his time he was able to go peacefully, knowing that he gave everything he had to live for the one reason we are here. We will all miss you soo much!
Till the we meet again.
