

Scott Campbell Piercey

May 26, 1958 - August 24, 2025

Scott Campbell Piercey, born May 26, 1958, in Vancouver, Washington, left us on August 24, 2025, at the age of 67. Scott was a beacon of kindness and compassion, with a personality that made it easy for him to make friends wherever he went. His infectious smile and quick wit could light up any room.

Though Scott was a private person, those who knew him well understood that his family was his greatest joy. He married his beloved Amy on June 20, 2015, and together they created a life filled with love and laughter. Scott's heart was fullest when surrounded by his four grandchildren, Trenton, Logan, Maximus, and Nikolye. They were truly his world, and he cherished every moment spent with them.

Scott is survived by his loving children, Christopher, Jordan and Tamika, who will carry forward his legacy of warmth and humor. His sister Mary, her husband Mike, and brother Don will fondly remember the shared memories and the bond they all treasured.

To honor Scott's life and spirit, a beach memorial will be held. Details will be shared soon, allowing family and friends to gather, reminisce, and celebrate the life of a remarkable man who touched so many lives.

Scott will be deeply missed, but his laughter and love will forever remain in the hearts of those who had the privilege to know him.
