“ Sean and I were friends for 20 years. When we were always together there was
A whole lot of laughing going on.

“ We only met 6 months ago, but every interaction that we had was pleasant and he was a nice and easy going guy. He showed me a picture of him in middle school and he had SO MUCH HAIR! It was nice to have met him, he was a good dude.

“ My husband and I met Sean late in his life, but we have loved his dad (Dave and Cindy) for what seems like a lifetime. These are the types of friendships that will never be "enough". Meeting Missy a few years ago at "the river house" was also very special, and we have been so very happy that they had a chance to share their lives with each other. These past years/months/days will be forever memories of Sean for everyone he loved and those who loved him. I am so sorry for the loss of his life, but so glad he was here - even if for just a little while. As someone I loved very much told me just last week, live and love much, mourn only briefly, and remember forever. Much love, Alice
