

Susan Elizabeth Freitas

February 2, 1950 - January 12, 2012

Susan Elizabeth Freitas, 61 of Hubbard was born Feb. 2, 1950 in Oregon City to Tom and Carol Cutsforth. She passed away due to heart failure on Jan. 12, 2012 in Salem with her family by her side.

Susie married Ernest Del Freitas on September 21, 1974. They lived in Portland for a short time after they were married and then moved to John Day. Susie and Ernie were longtime Canby residents where they raised their two daughters Sadie and Emily. They also lived in Woodburn, Sandy, Vancouver, WA, and most recently Hubbard.

Susie was the youngest of six children, and grew up in Sandy – in the same farmhouse where she and Ernie later married. Following graduation from Sandy High School, Susie attended cosmetology school in Portland. Susie was an accomplished writer and is the author of the acclaimed mystery The Rite Place which she followed up with Wagons Away. Her writing genres also included young adult fiction and a children's series titled Adventures with Farmer Tom and Granny Carol. As a published poet, Susie achieved both national and international attention. Susie was also the producer and star of the Welcome To My Kitchen cooking videos. Susie loved to cook, and was a talented chef and the owner of the Mi Cocina Restaurante in Canby. Her ingredients for success not only included cooking and writing but also being a loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, grandmother, aunt and friend.

Susie worked as a beautician, bartender and waitress and then became a stay-at-home mom when her children were born. When her daughters got older she worked as a chef and managed the kitchens at Cisco and Poncho's Mexican Restaurant in Portland , the Elm Street Inn, Wally's Chinese Kitchen, and the Canby Adult Center, all in Canby. Susie was also a member of Gleaners. Her hobbies included collecting works of art, knitting and crocheting, craft projects, and singing.

Susie is survived by her husband Ernest; daughters Sadie (Ken) Cordell, Vancouver, WA and Emily (Dustin) Mengis), Klamath Falls, OR; grandchildren Rowen Freitas, Vancouver, WA; Tristen Mengis and Payton Mengis Klamath Falls; brothers Dennis Cutsforth, Portland; Alan Cutsforth, Portland; sisters Sharon Reynoysa, Stevenson, WA; Karen Hines, Las Vegas, NV; Tami Vega, Costa Rica; numerous great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins, and adopted daughters Dee, Kacey, Kelly, Shelly, Carri, Angie, and many friends. She was preceded in death by her parents Tom and Carol Cutsforth Services will be held Thursday, Jan. 19, 2012 at 11:00 AM at Hillside Chapel, 1306 7th St. in Oregon City. Burial will follow at 1:00 pm at Willamette National Cemetery, 11800 SE Mount Scott Blvd. in Happy Valley.

“ Just thinking of Suzi and how I loved that she always dropped what she was doing (usually cooking) when we entered her home and greeted us with her warm smile and a hug always asking how we were feeling knowing that at times she was feeling much worse. I loved how she taught the grandkids all the songs from way back in our time. I loved her cooking. I loved that she was adventurous, we never knew what new idea she was trying out. I loved that she believed in Miracle water, lotion, gel. I loved her emails that were kinda like a cryptogram that I would read over and over to figure out. I will miss her greatly. Thank you for sharing her with us. Love you all

“ I could write a book about my friendship with Suz. There were so many aspects of her her humor, her willingness to help when needed, her compassion, her love and caring nature and yes, her stubbornness. She had ruff edges at times, but loyal to the core, and compassionate about what she believed in. I was so blessed to call her friend. I will miss her so much.

“ I'm sorry we couldn't make it as much as I want to but do to weather. I'm going to miss Susie very much. She was my second mom to my sister and I. I will always remember how much life she had and was always wanting to try everything she could. She would do anything for my family. Right now I wish I could do anything for her family! Love you guys and you are in my hearts and prayers. I'm sure glad I got to visit with Susie and Ernie!!

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss.
Your mom was and is an amazing person. God has some good stuff planned for her in heaven too! She was such a sweet lady. I know you will miss her tremendously as I miss my Bob. God will be there for you in all your pain and sorrow. I love you Emily and am praying for you and your family.

“ Emily - I was so shocked to hear about your darling mom's sudden death. I always enjoyed visiting with her at the family get-togethers, and remember her as an energetic, outgoing gal. So sorry for all of you because it was so unexpected. She's o.k. now, and I know she was so loved by you all. You have an angel looking out for you now.

“ "IN LOVING MEMORY OF"
Susan Elizabeth Cutsforth Freitas

*For a wonderful woman I'll never forget
You were an inspiration to all that you met
A beautiful person on both the inside and out
Loving wife, mother and grandma of that there's no doubt*

*The life and the people you've now left behind
Know the privilege of life with a woman so kind*

*A life lived to it's fullest in good times and bad
Great memories from childhood to adults that we've had
I'm glad to have known you and will never regret
Loving you cousin.....The woman I'll never forget!
I love you Suz...until we meet again!*

“ Where to start, Aunt Sue. We had so many fun times...cards, tennis, laughing real hard the time you came home from church and I was STILL defrosting the freezer cause apparently you have to turn the power off to make it work better. Karaoke, holidays, cookie day, the pinochle parties in the back yard. I could go on forever. I love you and u will be missed something awful.
