“ I treasure snippets of memories on Tom. This story gets better with each telling. Tom and I considered ourselves fortunate to get the young and energetic Mr. Robak for 5th grade. He shared a love of Peanuts comics--clear evidence of a sense of humor. Mrs. Abbott's stern side was more evident than any sense of humor, so it came as quite a shock when the usually patient and adaptable Mr. Robak sent Tom to BE IN MRS. ABBOTT'S CLASS FOREVER, for some offense so trivial it would typically go unmentioned. Such a harsh sentence for such a nice guy! Aghast, we all sat frozen in terror...until we learned it was a PRANK on US!

“ We met Tom and his family in 1997. Jet skiing with Tom was always fun, he loved the water. We will never forget Tom letting the kids ride Diamond, like he was a horse. His infectious laughter, sneaky fun, and love of life in general will be missed! He was a great friend and a wonderful man, and although he will be missed, he will never be forgotten!

“ Tom's funeral today was truly a celebration of his life and loves. Although we shed some tears (especially during the photo collage which was wonderful) the overall spirit of the day was very positive and hopeful. I love you Tom, Michelle, Nick and Kayla. XOXO Andrea

“ Tom was a great guy, and a good friend with a contagious smile and laugh. I knew Tom from elementary through high school, he lived right down the street from me on Corliss Drive. I remember palying "kick the can" and "hide and seek" with Tom and the rest of the neighborhood kids - Lynn McGonigle, John Sittle, and Robyn Dye, to name a few. Some of my best childhood memories include Tom. I am sorry to hear of his passing.

We are all lucky to have had him in our lives. For his family, I am truly sorry for your loss, but know you will always keep him in your hearts.

Warmly, Lynn

“ Tom was so very warm & loving with a really great laugh. He was a wonderful husband & father & his eyes just lit up whenever he looked at Michelee & the kids. We were so happy that he was a part of our family. We truly couldn't have wished for a better son-in-law & we will miss him terribly.

“ Tom and I grew up together in Moraga and had a great friendship. We did a lot of crazy things together and it left me some wonderful memories...ones I will never forget. Even though I've not seen Tom in a long while, I consider him a great friend and I will miss him terribly.

“ I am sad for you my friend. I am sad for the kids that they will not have more time with their father. I remember the love in his eyes when I stood up for you at your wedding. That was the opening of my eyes to comfortable love... people who didn't need too much around them, or interfering to enjoy life together. Content love, accepting each other as they were.

I will be here for you, although at a distance, my heart is with you every day, my prayers with you ever moment. You all have a wonderful angel... he is most certainly on a lake right now, riding his jet ski, playing a video game. Although his death takes him from this life. It gives him eternal life with no pain and no suffering. He is most certainly in his mother and sisters arms... be content in knowing he is being cared for and loved and will most certainly care for and love you and the kids from above. All my love my friend...
