

Warren Handy

March 19, 1982 - November 18, 2023

Warren Handy, of Oregon City, OR, passed away on Saturday, November 18th, 2023. He was 41.

Warren was born on March 19th, 1982 to Thomas and Julia Handy. He was always a fighter, being born 11 weeks premature at OHSU in Portland, Oregon. He was small but mighty!!

He grew up in Oregon City, graduating from Oregon City High School in 2000. During his school years, he made many lifelong friends, creating lasting memories with all the shenanigans they got up to.

After school, Warren decided to branch out on his own, becoming a general contractor, specializing in home remodeling. In this industry, he also made many friends of his co-workers, creating relationships that went beyond work.

Warren lived for anything outdoors: hunting and fishing being his favorite outdoor activities. He started at a young age, going hunting and fishing with his father and uncle, looking for their next big catch.

Two of the best days of his life were the days that his daughters, Alicia and Alexandra, were born. He enjoyed spending time with them, watching them do the stuff they loved, from t-ball to soccer, dance recitals to volleyball games.

He also loved taking them hunting and fishing, and sharing his passion for the great outdoors.

In addition to his father and mother, he is survived by his grandmother Jacqueline Ingalls, daughters, sister Shannon Marrs and brother-in-law Anthony. He was preceded in death by his grandfathers Thomas Handy and Warren Ingalls, grandmother Vera Handy, and older brother Brian, who passed away in infancy.

Services for Warren will be held on Saturday, December 2nd, 2023, at 10am at Trinity Lutheran Church: 16000 S Henrici, Oregon City, OR, 97045.
Reception to follow.

Warren's favorite charities were Forests Forever, Inc. and Love INC of Clackamas County. In lieu of gifts or flowers, the family asks that donations be made in Warren's name to one of these charities.

“ Warren was so much fun to hang out with—lots of good laughs even though we only knew him for a short time. Keeping the happy memories forefront in my mind and missing his big smile. Rest in peace.

“ In remembrance of Warren....my heart goes out to Tom, Julie, Shannon, Tony and our sweet Lici, Alex and family. I know, at his best, he was passionate, fierce, loyal, funny, a big teddy bear with his girls, the life of the party. He loved to tease & he loved his family. I remember how hard he worked & his talented hands making beautiful homes.

When my sweet Jordyn & the girls were little, they would wrap themselves around his legs and he made them giggle with piggybacks. The girls loved slumber parties and my daughter adored Warren & Andreas home. We loved B-day parties at Tom & Julie's home. I'll treasure our group of friends and memories we shared for years, the holidays, B-day celebrations, weddings, divorces, Halloween tricks & our beach house rentals!! I'll never forget Warren paying for my portion, (as I was a single mom) and telling me how he and Andrea, (in my breakup with my ex) kept me as their friend & not my Ex!! Lol...Warren always made you feel special with that twinkle in his eye ;)

We will treasure those memories!!! May he rest in peace. God bless those who were touched by him in life. My love to you all.....Sarah
