

Wayne Clyde Stewart

December 3, 1943 - July 20, 2022

Wayne C. Stewart, 78, passed away on July 20th, 2022 at his home in Gladstone, Oregon. He was dealing with heart problems stemming from years ago. He fought hard for his remaining days with all his loved ones around him. Wayne was born on December 3rd, 1943 to Clyde and Maude Stewart and was the 2nd out of 3 children in their family. Wayne had a brother named Bruce and a younger sister named Joanne. They lived in Oregon city for many years and he graduated from Oregon City High School. He was popular in high school and liked by many in his class. He then went on to the navy like his father and brother did and worked for the airlines there after. Soon after that, he went on a blind date and married his wife Eleanor L. Stewart had three children, Julianne, Jason and Michael. They all lived in Oregon and Hawaii in their early days. Wayne lived a good life and survived by his only wife of 55 years Eleanor L. Stewart and their 3 grown kids. He was a proud grandfather and great grandfather to Travis, Sage, Maile, Sean, Haiden, Alexis, Tyler, Bella and Timmy. There will be a celebration of life for Wayne on August 13th from noon to 4pm at Out in the Garden nursery in Molalla, 32483 S. Mathias Rd. Molalla, Oregon 97038. All are welcome to come and say your respects to him and his Ohana. Till we meet again, god bless.
