He was raised in Clarkes Oregon where he attended Clarkes School and graduated from Molalla High School. He married the love of his life, Margaret in 1960 and together they raised their four daughters at their home in Beaver creek.

He was a skilled mechanic and iron worker who could fix anything. It was not unlike him to help anyone who needed something repaired. His kids and grandkids remember how he would always check the car they were driving before they would leave Bill's home to make sure they were safe.

He made a great life for his family tying work with play. He took them on trips every summer traveling to Utah, Idaho, Arizona and Colorado. He helped his uncle harvest wheat several summers in Colorado and also mined gold in Alaska for many summers. He enjoyed the sheer beauty , peace and quiet of Alaska. He loved motorcycles and riding with his brother, daughters and grandkids. Bill and Margaret took their family on many fun camping trips.

He worked on equipment and cars up to the end of his life. He taught all of us so much and he will never be forgotten.
