“ When my husband and I got married, we purchased our initial home in Oak Grove. Coincidentally, Bill and Dolly, also newlyweds, moved in across the street from us. Witnessing our children playing together created fond memories. Eventually, both our families relocated, with Bill and Dolly settling in Puyallup, WA, and us in West Linn.

After some time, they returned, and we reconnected, spending moments playing cards and visiting. Following the passing of my first husband, my second husband developed a deep bond with Bill, feeling as though they had been lifelong friends. Bill was an incredibly kind man, and both he and Dolly brought us immense joy. We'll cherish memories of Bill and miss him dearly.
