

William "Bill" J. Hensel

August 19, 1931 - December 14, 2011

William Jacob Hensel passed away on Dec. 14, 2011 from a return of cancer. He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Diane, and daughters, Lisa, Lori (Greg) Good, and Wendy. He is also survived by grandsons Christopher and Riley. Bill was a builder in Columbia County for many years. He developed Riverview Heights in Columbia City. In 1989 he moved to Woodburn so he could golf as much as he wanted.

His memorial service will be held on Friday, Dec. 30th at 11:30 at Hillside Chapel in Oregon City with Pastor Barry Rogge officiating. In lieu of flowers, donations to the American Cancer Society, Hospice of McMinneville, or the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation would be greatly appreciated.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ William "Bill" J. Hensel

January 28, 2023 at 02:51 PM

“ Hi Diane,

It is such sad news to hear about Bill. I wish we lived closer so we could offer you support in person, but know that we think of you all often. You must take what comfort you can in knowing that he's not in pain any more. Much love and many hugs to you and your family. Hold them close.

Mike, Helen, Michelle & Kendall Moore

Michelle Moore - January 18, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ I love you all so much. So many memories of my childhood include your beautiful family. My life would not have been the same without Bill, Diane, and the "Hensel Girls!" Thank you for always having a place for me in your home. Lorinda :)

Lorinda Fawcett - December 29, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Steve and I are so sorry to hear of Bill's passing. We have wonderful memories of our years when we were neighbors. Diane, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Love and blessings to all of you.

Steve & Annette Quinn - December 17, 2011 at 12:00 AM